WEBINAR TO EDUCATE FAMILIES ON SEIZURES

Manasquan – The Epilepsy Foundation of New Jersey (EFNJ) will be participating in an online interactive conference seminar on June 26, 2007 entitled “The Need for a Seizure Preparedness Plan: Contemporary Issues in the Diagnosis and Management of Epilepsy in Children and Adults.”

The American Academy of Developmental Medicine and Dentistry (AADMD) is endorsing this seminar, a joint venture production of EP Global Communications, Inc. and Vemics, Inc. The Webinar will provide viewers and attendees with the knowledge and tools to prepare their own seizure preparation plans to maximize response to family member’s seizures. Distinguished presenters include Steven A. Wolf, MD, Jack Pellock, MD and Patricia McGoldrick, CPNP with moderation by Seth Keller, MD.

The free seminar will be from 7:00pm to 9:00pm at the Family Support Center of New Jersey, 2516 Highway 35, Manasquan, NJ 08736. Space is limited so interested individuals must register with Andrea Risetto of the Epilepsy Foundation of New Jersey at 1-800-372-6510. Any individuals unable to attend in person have the opportunity to view the seminar from their home computer by registering online at <http://www.epliveonline.org/epilepsy0626.html>.

The Epilepsy Foundation of New Jersey, an affiliate of the national Epilepsy Foundation, is a statewide voluntary agency dedicated to helping to improve the quality of life for people affected by epilepsy and their loved ones. The Foundation recently celebrated 35 years of service and continues to provide innovative and needed services to over 125,000 New Jersey residents living with epilepsy.
