

JOSEPH J. DELCONZO THE COAST STAR

AUTHOR ON A MISSION

BookTowne, in Manasquan, hosted a book signing on Saturday for Brielle teenager Kelly Pretz, 15, who recently published a young teen novel, "Rain at Midnight." Kelly, a sophomore at Manasquan High School who was diagnosed with rolandic epilepsy five years ago, is on a mission to raise epilepsy awareness not only in her own community, but beyond. Kelly is planning on donating $1 from each book sold to the NJ Epilepsy Foundation.
